THE STITCHING 'HAB'

Design, craft and fashion come together to create a revolutionary concept of a signature experiential haberdashery store, 'The Hab' by Usha, in Mumbai. This first of its kind store in India is aimed at making sewing a trendy concept that will inspire people to create, innovate and experience the art of sewing. Among the attendees were Pratiek, Sameera Reddy, Zoya Akhtar, Adhuna Akhtar, Bandana Tewari, Nishka Lulla and Pia Trivedi.

TOGETHER ON A 'HEA(L)TH STREAK

The Heath streak foundation received an overwhelming support from Mumbaiers at the exclusive evening hosted by Advocate Ashish Shelar, Captain Alwyn Saldanha and Rajesh Jain of the Paramount cricket club at Sofitel Hotel, Bandra Kurla Complex. The Heath Streak Foundation, which headed by the current Zimbabwe coach and former Zimbabwe player, Heath Streak, is dedicated to the cause of providing healthcare and education to less fortunate children and is expanding its wings with an Indian chapter.

LOOKING LIKE A MILLION DOLLARS

Essential Looks from Schwarzkopf Professional launched its much awaited FLUX Collection in Mumbai at Renaissance, Powai, amid much glitz and glamour. The latest catwalk hair trends were distilled into four new visual moods for Spring/Summer 2011. Each season, a handpicked team of hair professionals in the fashion weeks of London, Paris, Milan and New York emerge to create a collection of distinct trends to lead hairdressers and their salon clients to progress their personal style for the future.

MUMBAI DREAMS

Mumbai Mantra, the media and entertainment division of the Mahindra Group, collaborated with Sundance Institute for the inaugural Mumbai Mantra, Sundance Institute Screenwriters Lab 2012. Eight feature film projects were selected from screenplays submitted by Indian screenwriters from around the world. The screenwriting fellows had the opportunity to work intensely on their feature film scripts with the support of established screenwriters and directors.
