

ATTEND

● Visit a solo show of paintings by Roma Patel. Her painting full of lyricism and subtleties reflects youth, vigor, experience and maturity seasoned with the characteristic simplicity of the people who make art and culture the essential part of their lives. Her work is thought to surprise and move spectator, to arouse feeling and transmit emotions. Her paintings drive to contemplation, meditation and introspection.

When & Where: P L Deshpande Art Gallery, Prabhadevi.

● At the exhibition of sculptures by Anand Prabhudesai, experience exquisite works titled "Fluid". This series as the name signifies duely highlights the unique artistic expressions of Anand through his superb textural finesse and surface finish for sculptures in stainless steel, fibre and aluminium in the relevant perspectives.

When & Where: Jehangir Art Gallery, Kala Ghoda.

● Learn the basic of sewing and how to work with a machine to create beautiful designs. You can learn to stitch using basic and creative techniques with the help of the fascinating and user friendly Usha Jenome with the help of our sewing experts at the HAB. Come dabble into fascinating hobby ideas and create new and interesting patterns, use special foots to attach a button, work a buttonhole, make a picot hem, a corded tuck and work some decorative stitches on the machine. Shop for beads, sequins, laces and more all available at the HAB inventory.

When & Where: Linking Road, Khar West, Call 022-61274444

BUY

● Pick up artefacts and collectibles created by master craftsmen of India as well as a selection of garments, stoles, shawls and accessories from handpicked Indian designers. With change in season comes a rare opportunity to go cherry picking as Taj Khazana, announces its Spring Treasure Sale offering upto 50% off on shawls and stoles, home linen, designer garments, crafts and accessories.

When & Where: Taj Khazana, Taj Lands End, Bandra

● Aniket Satam's sportswear line christened as 'Energies' for the leading sportswear brand Attiva. Energies is focused on comfort and style and ranges from capri's, track suits, T-shirts, zippers, etc. The collection is designed in three different color schemes i.e. calm which teams up monotone scheme of ice blue, laguna blue and navy blue; Energies with raven and midnight black along with bold fuchsia and neon green and power-it which features ox black and slate black.

When & Where: www.attiva.com

UNWIND

● With a free entry for ladies enjoy Ma Faiza and Justin Chaos perform live. Born in Africa, Ma Faiza is one of the busiest and most successful DJs in India. Pushing the psychedelic trance music scene for close to two decades now, she commands an enviable position within India's otherwise male-dominated EDM circuit. Based out of Pune, this fierce personality is also a successful artist, producer and writer for various international and Indian publications.

When & Where: Blue Frog, Worli, 10.30 pm onwards

● Catch the talented Akshai Sarin perform this evening. Avoiding playing DJ sets, Akshai's live performance will see music from his album Connected which features collaborations with various artists across the globe. The band line up will comprise of Akshai Sarin on keyboards, electronics and lead vocals; special appearances by DJ Eddy Good (of Pacha Ibiza, Global Underground) on electronics, vocalist Temper Heart (who recently collaborated with Jay Sean), Stuart da Costa (of Mumbai band, Something Relevant) on bass guitar while British rapper Mc

Zen will add some zing to the performance. Akshai has lived on all the continents and his music has grown to attract fans from all backgrounds, and in turn have been influenced by a wide range of cultures.

When & Where: Shiro, Worli, 10 pm onwards

