ART

Art Walk: Exposure to Spanish Art and culture during her growing years led to Sangeeta Babani's foray into Indian art after she moved to Mumbai. Her paintings comprise various subjects, her themes are a blend of her Spanish upbringing and traditional Indian life. There are no straight answers and that is the beauty of life, this philosophy is celebrated in her canvases with an exuberance of colour and emotion. She was the first artist selected by Tata Motors to transform The Nano in an iconic work of art. On till February 15 Time and venue: 9 am to 9 pm at The Art Walk Gallery, Trident Hotel, The Oberoi Shopping Arcade, Nariman Point

Galerie Isa: Artist Matthias Bitzer works with multiple media to create abstract sculptures, drawings, and paintings. Interested in personal identity, and inspiration from 19th century icons in the field of film, literature, music and dance, Bitzer plays with the visual language of modernism, combining figurative portraits with abstract, geometric designs. Catch his work at Galerie Isa 27, Great Western Building, Opp Lion gate, Fort till April 25.

Pradarshak: The gallery presents "Glimpses of Kolkata" charcoal and acrylic on canvas paintings by Yuvraj Patil. Monochrome and sepia tones are two colour palettes in a work of art. Playing on this sensitivity, artist Patil recreates his memoirs of a recent visit to Kolkata, capturing the ethos of the city with charcoal on canvas. Till: February 14. Time: 11 am to 7 pm.
